George and the cat: Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb (conditional II).

1. If George ___________________________ (have) a cat, he ___________________________ (play) with it every day.
2. If he ___________________________ (play) with it every day, he ___________________________ (not/spend) so much time on the internet.
3. If he ___________________________ (not/spend) so much time surfing, he ___________________________ (have) better grades at school.
4. If he ___________________________ (be) a better student, he ___________________________ (enjoy) school and he ___________________________ (feel) more self-confident.
5. If he ___________________________ (feel) more self-confident, he ___________________________ (talk) to his classmates more often.
6. If he ___________________________ (talk) more often to his classmates, he ___________________________ (be) more popular.
7. If George ___________________________ (be) more popular, he ___________________________ (not/cry) so often and he ___________________________ (lead) a happier life.
8. So if I ___________________________ (be) George’s parents, I ___________________________ (get) him a cat.
Decide whether you have to use conditional I or II and write down the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1. A beggar: If I ________________________________ (have) a lot of money, I ________________________________ (buy) a house.

2. If Mandy ________________________________ (can) take her exam again, she would study harder.

3. If Marco ________________________________ (earn) enough money with babysitting this summer, he ________________________________ (buy) a flight to NYC.

4. If I ________________________________ (can) change one thing in the world, I ________________________________ (destroy) all borders.

5. Sue could play football more often if she ________________________________ (not/have) so many other hobbies.

6. Eve to Ann: If I ________________________________ you, I ________________________________ (take) the green dress.

7. They ________________________________ (not/go) to the cinema if their parents don’t allow them to do it.

8. A lonely child: If I ________________________________ (have) some friends, I ________________________________ (play) with them all day.
Ask questions with prepositions.

1. She isn’t interested in American history.
2. I was looking for my dog.
3. They talked about Jennifer.
4. Marlene and Sue are waiting for the police officer.
5. Marlene is waiting for a phone call.
6. I am angry with Michael.
7. Yesterday he talked to Natasha all evening.
8. Her parents were laughing about a joke.
9. Obama went to law school.