

Mixed Grammar

---

Complete the following text about Thanksgiving. Put in a missing word when you see question marks (???) or use the words in brackets in their correct form.

The Thanksgiving Story

The first Thanksgiving ..... (take) place in autumn 1621. Almost half of the Pilgrims ..... (kill) by the hard winter before. They had to do a lot by ..... (???). But it was only with the help of the Wampanoag tribe that the colonists ..... (manage) to survive. The Indians ..... (teach) them about fishing, planting and hunting. By autumn of 1621 enough food ..... (collect) to feed everybody through the coming winter. To thank God a three-day harvest festival ..... (organize). It ..... (attend) by 90 people including a number of Indians. The food, ..... (???) included turkeys, ducks, fish and dried fruit, ..... (eat) outside, as the Pilgrims didn't have enough space in their homes. The festival ..... (not repeat) for the next few years.

Nowadays Thanksgiving ..... (celebrate) on the last Thursday in November. Every year about 45 million turkeys ..... (buy) for Thanksgiving.

Mixed Grammar

---

Complete the following text about Thanksgiving. Put in a missing word when you see question marks (???) or use the words in brackets in their correct form.

The Thanksgiving Story

The first Thanksgiving ..... took ..... (take) place in autumn 1621. Almost half of the Pilgrims ..... had been killed ..... (kill) by the hard winter before. They had to do a lot by ..... themselves ..... (???). But it was only with the help of the Wampanoag tribe that the colonists ..... managed ..... (manage) to survive. The Indians ..... taught ..... (teach) them about fishing, planting and hunting. By autumn of 1621 enough food ..... was/had been collected ..... (collect) to feed everybody through the coming winter. To thank God a three-day harvest festival ..... was organized ..... (organize). It ..... was attended ..... (attend) by 90 people including a number of Indians. The food, ..... which ..... (???) included turkeys, ducks, fish and dried fruit, ..... was eaten ..... (eat) outside, as the Pilgrims didn't have enough space in their homes. The festival ..... was not repeated ..... (not repeat) for the next few years. Nowadays Thanksgiving ..... is celebrated ..... (celebrate) on the last Thursday in November. Every year about 45 million turkeys ..... are bought ..... (buy) for Thanksgiving.